

Nineteen Hundred and Fifty Two

COL-GRO

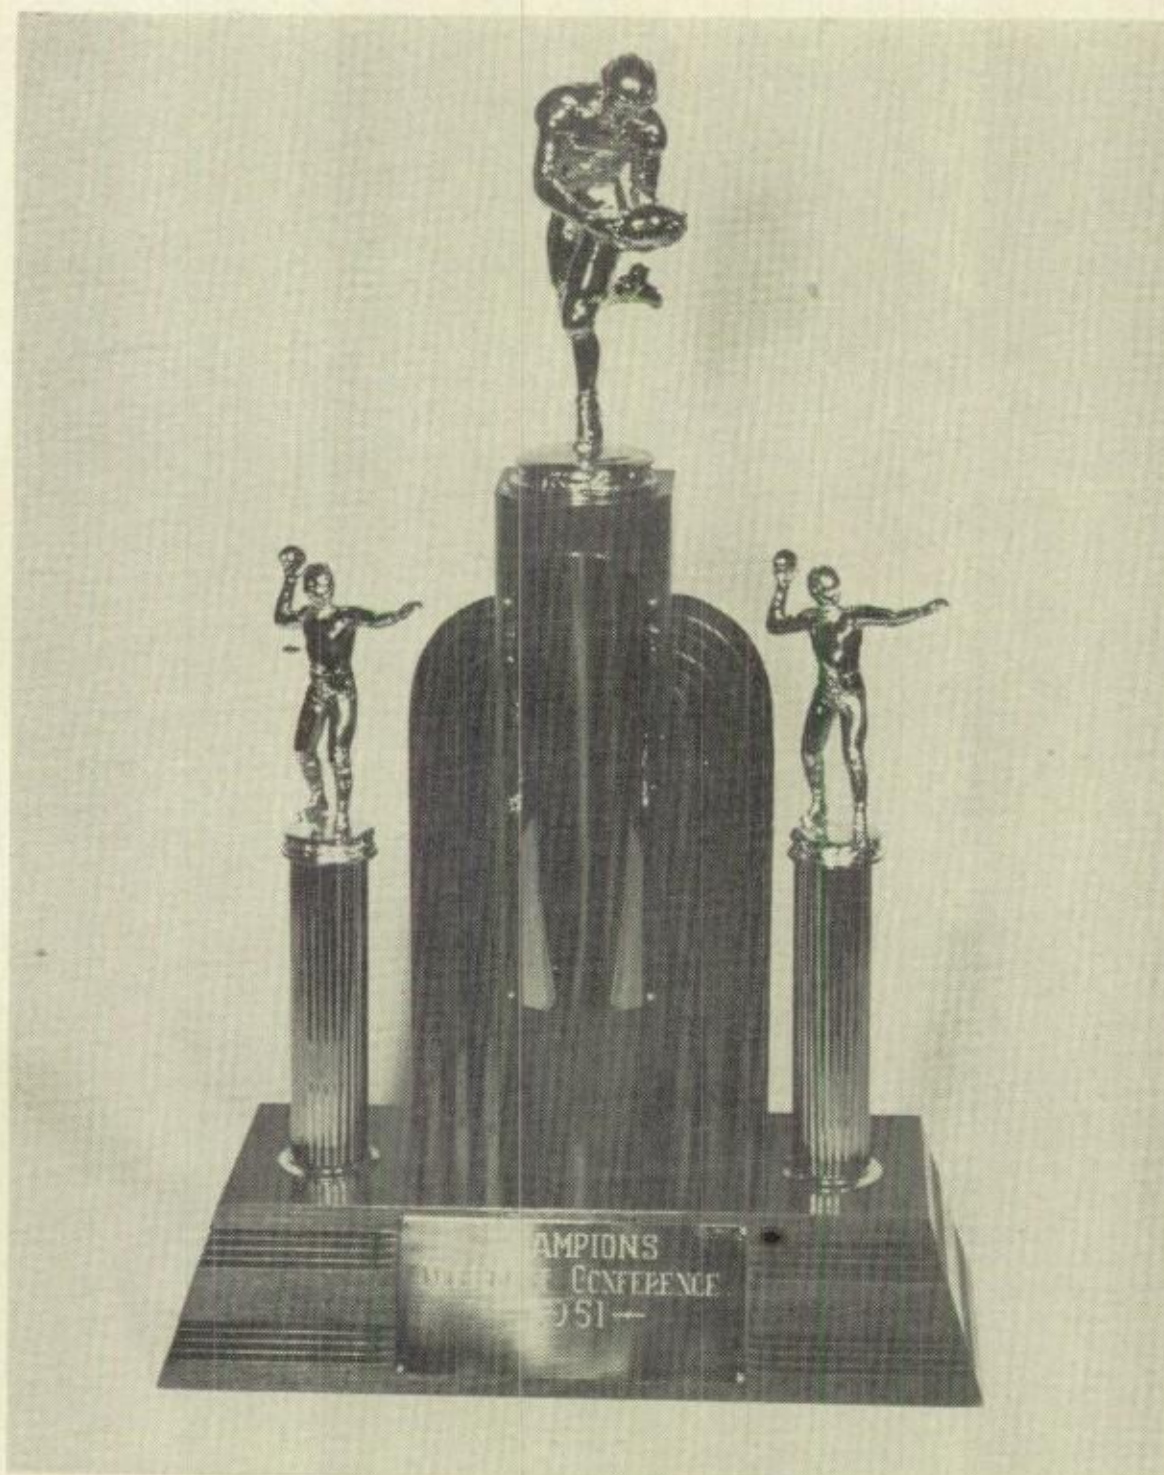

2a

Dedication

We proudly honor our championship football team of 1951-52 by dedicating this edition of "Col-Grove" to these worthy athletes and their coaches. History was made when they brought this honor to themselves, their school, and community for the first time since the sport was inaugurated here. We will never forget this thrill-packed season particularly in the case of the crucial Forest and Shawnee games when the Grove came from behind in the last quarter to push over the necessary points for well earned victories.

Their good sportsmanship, team play, and will to honorably win will ever stand as an example for all future Bulldog Elevens to emulate.

The boys, and their coaches, Collins Stackhouse and Robert Diller, are much deserving of this dedicatory honor we hereby bestow upon them.

ADMINISTRATION

Board of Education

Working behind the scenes of any school system is a group of people who labor tirelessly and receive little credit. This group is the Board of Education elected by the people of the community. It is this group that binds more closely together the student, administration and parent. Since we seldom come into contact with these persons, few of us know them or realize our indebtedness to them. We would like to take this opportunity to say thank you for the wonderful job you are doing.

Coaches

Coach Stackhouse isn't content to rest on his laurels as was shown by this year's championship squad. In the five years Stack has been here each team he has coached improved on its record. This year his goal was reached as they won the Northwest Conference with a record of 8 wins, 1 tie and no losses.

This is a great tribute to the school and to Coach Stackhouse because he has trained the boys to play good, hard, clean football. Grove's backfield was one of the smoothest working outfits of the league, due to his intensive training and drilling.

Mr. Diller arrived here only this year but he showed his ability to coach the line because it was really solid.

In the clutch the line held fast and stopped the opponents cold.

Mr. Diller came here last year from Gilboa where he taught a few years. He is a graduate of Defiance College where he attended after returning from the service. He is also an alumni of this school having graduated in 1942.

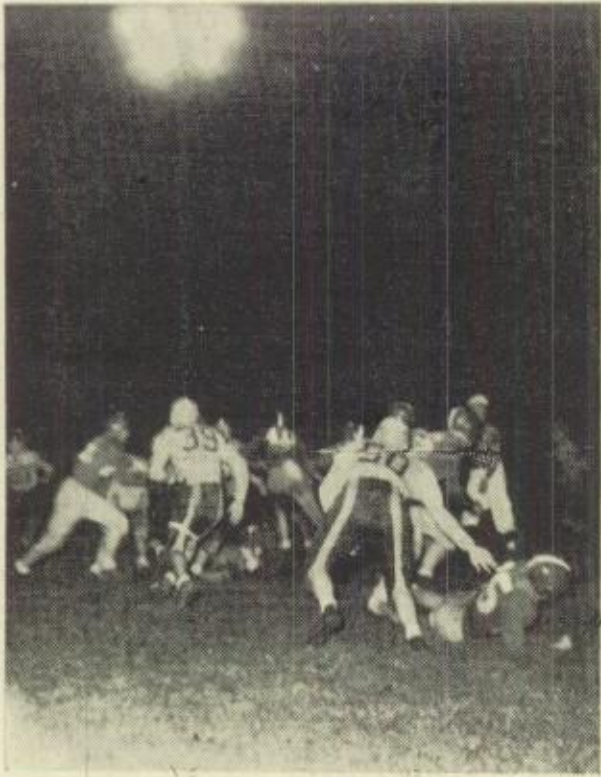

We all wish him the best of luck in his future coaching career at Columbus Grove High School.

Grove Win at Shawnee May Merit WWC Crown

There'll be a home celebration at Shawnee high Friday night, and altho the figure in contention for the Northwest conference football crown is Columbus Grove eleven, they've held the title for two years, they could get a mirage out of preventing the grade drag-out battle the last night. The expected to be the power's power request for Friday night's action close behind in the class.

First NW Title C. Grove's Goal

COLUMBUS GROVE, Nov. 1—Unbeaten, once-tied Columbus Grove high Bulldogs favored tonight to rack up the school's first Northwest conference football championship Friday night when they host to Pandora-Gro.

The Bulldogs, coached by Stackhouse, tied one league competition.

Forest, current runner-up, will take on a non-league Ada, on the latter's schedule.

Forest, 1950 NWC league book.

In Friday night action, champion, will be at Spokane and Lafayette at Delphos.

Trounces Delphos

(Special to The Lima News)
COLUMBUS GROVE—Uncorking a well-rounded offense and a hard-charging defense, Columbus Grove's Bulldogs trounced Delphos Jefferson 27 to 0 in a Northwest Conference football game here Friday night.

Delphos took the opening kickoff and made one first down before having to punt. The Grove eleven took the punt on its own and marched to its first touchdown.

Grove Gets Off To Flying With Victory Over D

Columbus Grove Bulldogs got off to a flying start in the Northwest conference last Friday night.

Columbus Grove Grabs Championship Title

COLUMBUS GROVE, Nov. 2—Columbus Grove scored an easy 39 to 0 win over Pandora tonight with a three touchdown blast in the second period to give the Bulldogs undisputed championship of the Northwest conference.

Grove led Pandora 11 to 3 in first downs and never allowed the visitors to move the ball inside. Glenn Kidd scored three times for the winners and kicked one extra point. Nolan Dunlap scored the first TD of the game and passed for two and Merlin Sargent passed to Ben Baxter for the other score.

Extra points were added by Adrian Birkemier and Sargent.

Unbeaten Forest Gets Big Test

Grove 33 lead;
Elida 30 Fourth

Coach Colby's house and his hill-climbing Grove football team are up to the "acid test" of their Northwest conference Thursday night.

The Bulldogs, unbeaten Forest on their home field in a battle to ramble the conference.

On the night an upstart season "season" honors, is expected to combine its winning ways when it tackles Delphos Jefferson.

Here's the picture. Now in second place, a win over Forest, 4-0, would put the Grove team, 3-0-1, in first place and sink Forest to second; a loss and Elida's expected win over visiting Delphos would boost Elida, 3-1-1, into second place behind Forest. Third place Spencerville, 3-1-0, is thus jeopardizing its position with a Thursday night non-league game with Waynesfield.

PART OF Grove's win-potential depends on a crack offensive line led by veteran Birkenmeier and his center and backer.

Columbus Grove Captures Title

GROVE, Nov. 3—Columbus Grove clinched the Northwest Conference football championship as it routed Pandora-Gro 39 to 0. Glen Kidd scored three touchdowns for the winners and kicked one extra point. Nolan Dunlap scored the first TD of the game and passed for two and Merlin Sargent passed to Ben Baxter for the other score.

Extra points were added by Adrian Birkemier and Sargent.

Prophecy of Class of 1952 Looking Ahead To 1957

Well, here we are. The dear old C. G. "Professionals" just won the "Mixing Bowl" game by a tremendous score of 152-0. In trampling the college all-stars each player scored at least 7 points.

Immediately after the game the class of '52 was rushed off to Marian's Motel in Jerry Macke's '57 firepower for a class get-together. As we enter the doors who do we see but Marian Gilbert, head proprietress.

Guess who we saw next!! Phyllis Myers and Jim Verhoff sitting at the first table. Jim is quite a successful businessman. (Confidentially he's a carpenter and Phyllis is his office girl.) Sitting at their table are Maxine Meyer and Paul Henderson. Paul is a hardware salesman and Maxine is his personal secretary.

Sashshaying through the door are Helen Jones and Merlin Sargent. He just graduated from the University of Michigan and is teaching and coaching at Milan, Michigan. Helen is keeping house for him and running a beauty parlor. Following them are Ann Vance and Jim McBride. Ann is a full-fledged nurse and Jim is a Jet fighter pilot ace with 25 planes to his credit.

Seated around the large table in the center of the room are the unattached members of the class. First is Jack Core, line coach for the "Professionals" and does some High School coaching on the side. Next is Dick Warnecke who is running the Full-O-Pep Experimental Farm and is doing quite well from latest reports. Dick Hoyt is also sitting at this table with a big cigar to celebrate his commission to manager of the Glandorf Tile Mill.

At a table are Bill Bogart and Dick Rimer discussing the sugar-beet situation as they are executives of the Putnam County Sugar Beet Corporation. Seated with them is Jerry Macke reflecting the tomato juice shortage.

At the next table are Glen Dukes and Nolan Dunlap comparing notes on their Ag. Classes. Right now they are arguing over which came first, the chicken or the egg.

Margaret Palte and Rita Bogart both got special leaves from the Waves and Spars to be with us tonight.

Vinnie Birkemeyer is still chasing all the women. We see he has one cornered now so we won't bother him.

Jackie Sarber, Eileen Smith, and Doris Bok just returned from a round the world trip and are planning to tell us some of their experiences later this evening.

Here comes "Sherlock Holmes" complete with hat and false mustache. But everybody knows it's F.B.I. agent C. H. Mills who just exposed enemy agents stealing top secrets on the new Supersonic Interplanetary Spacecruiser designed by Tom McAdams Corporation. Tom is an aeronautical designer as you may have guessed.

Seated in a far corner dressed in white are the Florence Nightingales of the class—Maxine Diller and Patty Culp.

Coming in from the back 40 is Adrian Birkemeier. He has gone into the Hybrid Seed Corn business.

At a table near the back are Ronnie Everitt, Mud Goedde and Jim Lamb discussing the latest in auto mechanics. These new cars pose quite a problem. That's why they hired Tom Cartwright as business manager. He's quite a whiz at the new streamlined jobs.

Coming down the aisle next are the "bcsses right arms" in other words the secretaries of the class. We know them as: Eloise Barber, secretary to a Lawyer; Joyce Barto, Mr. Shook's office girl; Pat Doty, receptionist for Sylvania, Inc.; Pat Haas, bookkeeper for Earl's Hardware; Mary Jo Hitchcock, receptionist for Dr. Wheeze; Wilma Kohli, typist for the County Coroner; and Helen Ramsey, personal secretary for the Governor.

A rush call is necessary to policeman Jack Frost, and who should answer our call but telephone operator Ruth Hartman. She and Jack will join us later.

Coming in from a late class is Bob Gillespie. He's working on his masters degree in Physical Education.

At the teachers' table we find Rose Leigh Mayberry and Judy Stewart discussing their various crop of "problem" children. Seems as though the crop is as bad as ever.

A new addition to the local school faculty is Ruby Watkins. She acts as Mr. Smith's receptionist while Kay Williams is clerk for the Board of Education.

Coming in next from an important conference is State Representative Willis Wood. With him is his backer, Junior Gerdeman, President of the First National Bank of Ohio.

A look at our watch tells us it's time to leave. As we depart we notice the provider of the night's entertainment, Dick Roethlisberger and his Highlander Band.

And so this class of '52 looks back upon its high school memories with a note of regret but with an added zest toward the future and another reunion.

The Last Will and Testament

We, the members of the class of '52 of Columbus Grove High School being of sound mind and memory, and knowing that our school days are over, do make, publish, and declare this our Last Will and Testament.

We, the Seniors, declare Miss Lauretta Brooks, our class advisor, as executor of this document.

ARTICLE I

To the Freshmen, we will courage to face the next three years of high school.

ARTICLE II

To the Sophomores, we will all the magazines in study hall so that they may obtain knowledge and understanding such as we have acquired from these useful sources.

ARTICLE III

To the Juniors, we will our ability to get into trouble with the office and our old school books.

ARTICLE IV

To the Janitors, we will all the candy wrappers and other papers lying on the floor. Incidentally, we do bequeath our appreciation for cleaning up after us.

ARTICLE V

To our advisors Miss Brooks and Mr. Brooks, we will the Junior Class as a token of our appreciation for advising us to the best of their ability.

ARTICLE VI

To the Faculty as a whole we will our long assignments and the headaches we obtained from them. Of course we do bequeath our gratitude for helping us acquire enough knowledge to receive a diploma.

ARTICLE VII

To Miss Jones, our Senior Annual Advisor, we bequeath our sincere appreciation for helping us with the COL-GRO of '52.

ARTICLE VIII

We, individually, devise and bequeath.

Eloise Barber—her Senior books to the classes coming up.

Joyce Barto—her ability to get along with Mr. Shook in Sr. English and Civics class to anyone who cares to have it.

Bill Bogart—his automobile to Mr. Shook to go to Fort Wayne.

Rita Bogart—her way of walking to Denise Fruchey.

Tom Cartwright—his ability to sleep through Miss Hawk's law class to Bill Schumacher.

Jack Core—his good looks to Morton Pugh.

Patty Culp—her shortness to Benny Baxter and her A's in Latin to anyone who makes D's.

Doris Bok—her long hours of studying to Shirley Rimer.

Adrian Birkemeier—his size 36 pants and large size helmet to anyone who can keep it on without having them fall off.

Pat Doty—her perfect attendance to whoever thinks he or she can stand it.

Maxine Diller—her position as Art Editor to Larry Clymer.

Glen Dukes—his place in gym class to any dumb jerk who wants to bounce his head off the mat for 45 minutes twice a week.

Nolan Dunlap—his football ability to Glen Kidd.

Vincent Birkemeyer—his place in gym class to whoever is crazy enough to take it.

Ronald Everitt—his ability to get along with Miss Gettman to Glen Kidd and to Duke Williams his ability to stay out of the path of Mr. Riley's board.

Jack Frost—his seat in Physics class to anyone who wants it.

Junior Gerdeman—his way as treasurer with Mrs. Shook to Paul Stechschulte.

Marian Gilbert—her seat in Secretarial to any student wishing it.

Bob Gillespie—his 34 Chevy to Gus Siefker for use as spare parts.

Walter Goedde—his Plymouth to anyone who has to walk to school.

Pat Haas—her diamond to Edith Kohli who would like to have one from Bill Schumacher.

Ruth Hartman—her quietness to Edith Kohli.

Paul Henderson—his mathematical knowledge to Gordon Meyer.

Mary Jo Hitchcock—her shortness to Benny Baxter and her place as attendant to the queen to any lucky Junior girl.

Richard Hoyt—his intelligent but little used brain to some boy with the ambition to use it. Also his ability to get the car to Jeanne Heckman and his books on "How to Drive" to Bill Radabaugh for future driving.

Helen Jones—her cheerleading ability to Mary Martha Best.

Wilma Kohli—her place as assistant secretary to Mrs. Shook to anyone who has the study halls and the time to do it.

Jim Lamb—his ability to land flat on his back in gym class to Dick Dackin.

Jerry Macke—his ability to trap a woman to Sonny Halker.

Rose Leigh Mayberry—her ability to sneak in classes a little late to Eleanor Bixel.

Tom McAdams—his sociology book and short hair cut to Mr. Shook and his ability to flirt to Dick Moser.

Jim McBride—his ability to talk his way out of a tight spot to Bill Bell.

Maxine Meyer—her job of typing sport programs to the person who has excess of free periods and who knows something of the mechanism of a typewriter.

Charles Mills—his brain to anyone who can use it.

Phyllis Myers—her extra large class ring to Dot Nusbaum, but not the guy.

Margaret Palte—her box of kleenex to Dot Lammers in case she has use for one and she is not around.

Dick Rimer—his broad shoulders to any boy with out them.

Merlin Sargent—his ability to get along with Fritz Halker to Janet Stewart.

Judy Stewart—her ability to giggle to Doneta Amstutz and her place in Macke's truck to Beverly Jones.

Eileen Smith—the troubles she has with her dog to anyone who thinks they can handle a playful, full-grown St. Bernard.

Helen Ramsey—her seat in Secretarial class to anyone who likes Secretarial.

Jackie Sarber—her ability to get out of study halls to Sue Stettler.

Jim Verhoff—his job as chief errand boy in the office to anyone who can spare the study halls.

Ann Vance—her extra large class ring to Shirley Broecker.

Alvin Warnecke—his ability to talk in study halls and his ability to type to Tom Knott.

Many people are under the impression that all photographers work alike and that there is little difference in school photographs and photographers

OUR PHOTOGRAPHERS KNOW DIFFERENT

WHAT MAKES A WINES' PHOTOGRAPH SUPERIOR?

First: Posing Know How

Second: As little interference with school work as possible

Third: Printing techniques and darkroom specialists to process your orders

OF COURSE, THERE'S MORE TO IT

Tied with a Red, White and Blue Ribbon

You receive it proudly, of course. You've graduated. But isn't there a deeper reason why you feel your chin go up as you reach for your diploma? Isn't it the fact that you've received it from an American school? Where every student has an equal chance not just to "learn"...but to learn undistorted truths? Where every student has an equal right, not just to do "good enough"...but to excel... in the classroom, on the athletic field, in activities of all kinds? For that is the strength of America. That is why it is... and will continue to be... a great nation.

Class History

There is a pale blue flower
That twines around the shephard's cot,
And in the silent twilight hour
Softly sighs, "Forget me not."

Thirty-six little boys and girls started in the first grade of our school in 1940. We were frightened, but soon lost our fear. Miss Grossman was our teacher.

The names of these little boys and girls were: Joyce Barto, Shirley Benroth, Patty Culp, Patsy Doty, Carol Eversole, Alice Howell, Mary Jo Hitchcock, Edna Gail Kieran, Wilma Kohli, Elizabeth Krantz, Ruth Hartman, Rose Leigh Mayberry, Phyllis Myers, Helen Ramsey, Hulda Rogers, Jacquelyn Sarber, Joyce Stoufer, Bill Bogart, Ronald Bogart, Jack C. Core, Jack L. Core, Marion Featheringill, Charles Frost, Robert Gillispie, Lester Busick, Paul Henderson, Dale Jenkins, Jon Jones, Tom McAdams, Warren Ridinger, Robert Risser, Dick Roethlisberger, Merlin Sargent, Robert Wilson, and Kay Williams.

Because our class was so large we were divided. Those in the mixed class were: Ed Davis, Maxine Diller, Ruth Hartman, and Marian Bell.

The same little boys and girls moved on to the second grade. We had Miss Ethel Brukham for our teacher. In this year we gained Ann Vance and lost Joyce Stoufer.

We were promoted to the third grade, and had Miss Kurtz for our teacher. She told us we were old enough now to do some studying for ourselves.

We had some new boys and girls come into this grade. They were: David Elliott, Bob Epley, Walter Goedde, Jim McBride, Eloise Barber, Judy Stewart, and Marian Gilbert, and her sister Mildred Gilbert.

We had Mrs. Helen Schaller as our fourth grade teacher. And, oh! How she made us divide, and multiply in our arithmetic class. We had six new students come into our class. They were: Norma Jo Carmony, Eloise Martz, Nolan Dunlap, Bill Link and Ronald Everitt.

Mrs. Florence Brooks, from Leipsic, was our fifth grade teacher. We really learned how to study geography in her room. Ruby Watkins was our only new student this year.

We went into the sixth grade, and Mrs. Mary Sheely was our teacher. It was in this grade we elected our first class officers, and had our first big class party at the school cafeteria. Our class gained some new classmates during this year. They were: Glen Dukes, Jack Dunbar, Jack Stout and Tom Cartwright. In this year also Marian Bell moved to Bluffton.

In the seventh grade we lost Jack Dunbar as he was accidentally killed.

In our Freshman year we acquired many new classmates. Those from Cairo were: Rita Bogart, Doris Bok, James Lamb, Pat Haas, Jr. Gerdeman, Urban Lauf, Charles Mills, Willis Woods, and Helen Jones. From St. Anthony's came: Adrian Birkemeier, Vincent Birkemeyer, Richard Hoyt, Francis Lammers, Jerome Macke, James Verhoff, Alvin Warnecke, Maxine Meyer, Margaret Palte and Eileen Smith.

Time moves on! After many, many, forty-five minute periods of study, lecture, and recitations we realize we are Juniors. Our class rings were beautiful. Our Junior play, "You Can't Take It With You," was a wonderful success. Mr. Dickson was the director and Mrs. Now was asst. director.

Our Senior class play was a comedy "Quiet Everybody." The director and assistant director were Miss McNary and Miss Brooks.

The class of 1952 will long remember the different organizations we had the privilege to belong to; our chapel periods; our parties; our teachers; remember even the "just being together" for twelve years during our school life.

So, our class of 1952 have started on a new and more difficult road of life; but memories of our C. G. school days will never be forgotten.

THE END
